POULTRY RINGS

- Because of public participation in Shows and Expo's, the bearing of rings is not compulsory. However, no other removable type of ring, cable tie, leg band of whatever nature shall be allowed and must be removed before birds are penned.
- The club holding a show may charge an extra entry fee for un-ringed birds.
- An imported bird wearing a ring of the country of origin shall not be discriminated against.
- Judges should first consult with the show manager before disqualifying an exhibit, bearing a wrong size of ring. Any bird wearing a ring larger than the size specified may be disqualified from participation.
- A bird with a 2010 ring may be entered at shows as a yearling until 31 December 2011.
