1 GUIDELINES FOR EXAMINATIONS

1.1 Application for Judge's Examinations:

1.1.1 The candidate must be a respectable person and should be a member of a SPSA.

1.1.2 The candidate should be at least eighteen years of age. A certified copy of the ID of the candidate must be included with every application.

1.1.3 The candidate must prove that he has a good background and knowledge regarding the showing and or breeding of poultry in general in order to become a competent judge.

1.1.4 The candidate must be the holder of a SPSA Show Administrators Certificate in order to apply for any breed examination.

1.1.5 All applications for examination must be done on the official application form of SPSA and must be accompanied by the prescribed examination fee.

1.1.6 The candidate will be notified in writing if permission to enter for the examination is granted.

1.1.7 If permission to enter for an examination is refused for whatever reason, the examination fees will be refunded less an administration fee of 10%.

1.1.8 Participating in any breed examination will take place in two categories namely a theoretical and a practical examination.

1.1.9 During the theoretical examination the knowledge of the candidate regarding the breed will be tested. Furthermore any other aspect related to the breed, judging and poultry in general will be tested. Candidates will be examined on the Breed Standard including the Rules regarding the standards, general disqualifications, general defects, glossary, Poultry Handbook, etc.

1.1.10 The applicant may participate in a maximum of five breed examinations during a twelve month period.

1.2   Examination of Show Administrators:

1.2.1   The examination on the SPSA MOI, Rules and Regulations is not restricted to aspirant judges only, but can be written by any SPSA member who is in good standing with SPSA.

1.2.2   There is no age restriction and successful candidates will receive a Show Administration Certificate.

1.2.3   It is expected from all SPSA Directors, Show Managers and Show Secretaries to get them acquainted with the SPSA MOI, Rules and Regulations by writing this examination.

1.3   SPSA Examinations:

1.3.1   All theoretical examinations will consist of multiple choice questions.

1.3.2   The requirement to pass an examination is 50%.

1.3.3   Candidates failing exams may re-apply to write the exam after ninety days of the previous exam date.

1.3.4   The candidate will be supplied with a username and password to log in on www.poultrysa.org.za.

1.3.5   A time limit will be set by the computer to complete each exam paper. Your results will be available on completion of the exam.
